Girl Scout Week is celebrated each March, starting with Girl Scout Sunday and it always includes the Girl Scout Birthday, March 12th which commemorates the day in 1912 when Juliette Gordon Low officially registered the organizations first 18 girl members in Savannah, Georgia.

This year, 2018, represents Girl Scouts' 106th birthday!

Here are some ideas on how to celebrate each day of Girl Scout Week

- Sunday - Read or re-read the Juliette Gordon Low story and celebrate her honor.
- Monday - Have a birthday party in honor of Girl Scouts birthday.
- Tuesday - Take some canned goods to your local food pantry.
- Wednesday - Go on a scavenger hike. Find something in nature that starts with each letter of "Girl Scouts".
- Thursday - Create a STEAM activity in your kitchen.
- Friday - See if you can get permission from your school to wear your Girl Scout uniform or Girl Scout t-shirt to school. Be sure to take some #SQUAD photos!
- Saturday - Attend a religious service AND wear your Girl Scout uniform. Say or sing grace at a meal.
