

Las Cruces
Sun-News
10 May 2010

GIRL SCOUTS HAPPENINGS

COURTESY PHOTOS

GIRL SCOUTS OF THE DESERT SOUTHWEST — DESERT DIAMONDS SERVICE UNIT recently shared a Daisy Day Event with troops in Las Cruces. Daisy Day is a celebration of Girl Scouting and Juliette "Daisy" Gordon Low, founder of Girl Scouts.

GIRL SCOUTS OF THE DESERT SOUTHWEST met the NMSU Aggie Women's Softball Team. After a winning game, the team signed posters and T-shirts for the Girl Scouts, who also had a chance to talk and take photos with the team. Girl Scouts provided and shared a picnic with the Aggie ladies.

GIRL SCOUT TROOP 427 recently worked with Craig Fenske in The Great American Cleanup 2010. Above, U.S. Rep. Harry Teague and Las Cruces Mayor Ken Miyagishima, in the back, are pictured with the troop. Front row, from left: Marisa, Brianna, Trinity and Nanabelle. Middle row: Troop leader Kathy, Ana, Rosalynda, Angellica, Alyssa, Alysha, Yesenia, Shelley, co-leader Nevolin, Clarisa and co-leader Danielle.