

GIRL SCOUT SKILLS

.....

Courtesy photo

Girl Scouts of the Desert Southwest troop 427 were invited by Eugene Hernandez of the Doña Ana Community College to volunteer with Skills U.S.A competition that recently took place in Albuquerque. Girl Scouts Cadettes DeMitre F., from left, Shelley G., Yesenia M., Angellica H. and Alysha P. attended and were given the opportunity to volunteer and complete their community service hours for their Girl Scout Silver Award, the highest a Girl Scout Cadette can earn. They were given the chance to see women and men compete in police and crime investigation, film, nursing, pre-school, masonry work, building an actual building or deck, fire fighting or working as a chef.