

Girl Scouts recognize volunteers

Girl Scouts of the Desert Southwest honored the achievements of volunteers made in 2009-10 at the Annual Volunteer Fest on May 22 in Las Cruces.

Girl Scouts owe a tremendous debt of gratitude to the thousands of volunteers who make the program happen. Without the countless hours given by troop leaders and assistants, group advisors, troop committees and parents, service units, and even community volunteers and organizations, the Girl Scouts program would not exist. Many of these volunteers give service beyond the expectations of their position and deserve public recognition for their dedication to the girls and the Girl Scouts organization.
